

RStLYC Fleet Championship Series Requirements (2018): All Fleets

Each Fleet Championship Series will consist of all individual races combined from:

- The Evening Series (only RStLYC boat scores extracted from all Good Neighbour Series individual races)
- The RStLYC Annual Regatta (only RStLYC boat scores).
- Other series/regattas as optionally requested by the fleet. See: Fleet Requirements.

Eligibility

To be eligible for Fleet champion, 2nd or 3rd place, boats must have raced:

- 1/3, rounded up, of the number of races sailed in the Fleet Championship Series; and
- A minimum of 7 days of on the water racing.

Scoring

The number of races to count will be 60%, rounded up, of the number of races sailed.

All Fleets: A boat that did not come to the starting area (DNC) will be scored points for the finishing place equal to 2 more than the number of boats that came to the starting area. This changes RRS A9.

RStLYC Club Championship Eligibility

Any helmsperson, irrespective of his/her placement overall, who is a member in good standing of the RStLYC, may sail in the RStLYC Club Championship if he/she has helmed:

- A minimum of 50% of the number of races sailed in their respective Fleet Championship Series; and
- A minimum of 7 days of on the water racing.

Interpretations of eligibility will be determined by the sailing committee chairperson only, with his/her decision being final and binding. Fleet champions will have a right of first refusal on the use of club boats.

The crew used for the RStLYC Club Championship must be the helmsperson's regular crew members who are members in good standing. Regular Crew Members are defined as those crew members that competed on the helmsperson's boat a minimum of 50% of the number of races sailed. Should some crew members be unavailable, then the helmsperson may choose regular crew from within the fleet. Bringing in a rock star / guru will not be permitted. Helmspersons from within your fleet do not qualify as regular crew. Interpretations of eligibility will be determined by the sailing committee chairperson only, with her/his decision being final and binding.
